Peninsula Country Market Society

Rules and Regulations of the Market Est. 2007 – Revised 2011

1. "Local", in the regulations below, is defined as "Vancouver Island and the adjoining Gulf Islands".
2. Priority is given to vendors producing crafts and food products made from local materials. All products must be labeled as to the origin.
3. All agricultural, horticultural or food products must be produced locally. BC produce may be sold with the Market Managers approval*. In the case of non-local or non-vendor produced products, the Market Manager will provide signage, which the vendor must post in a visible manner. *(See 'BC Farm Produce Policy' online under 'Policy and Terms' of the markets website).
4. The Peninsula Country Market reserves the right to regulate the type and nature of all products offered for sale and the display of those items.
5. It is the responsibility of food vendors to follow the Capital Region Health Regulations. A copy of the required approval forms and/or permits must be available for inspection each market day.
6. Food vendors must register their products for sale with the Market Manager according to the food vendor registration form and rules
7. The Peninsula Country Market has liability insurance to cover the hours of the Market; however, it will not accept responsibility for the negligence of individual stall holders. Every stall holder is asked to ensure that their home owner, business, or other insurance policy covers them for participation in the Market.
8. For reasons of safety, stall holders' vehicles should not be moved during the Market hours and must be off the field area used by the customers no later than 8:45 a.m. Please limit parking on site to one vehicle. Extra vehicles should be parked in the parking lot.
9. Stall holders are responsible for keeping their areas tidy and for removing any litter left in their area after the Market.
10. Vendors are encouraged to leave their dogs at home, if not Vendors should keep their dogs on a leash at all times.
11. The Market is open to the public from 9:00am to 1:00pm. Please do not arrive before 7:45 a.m., but do arrive in time to be set up by 8:45 a.m. and do not leave before 1:00 p.m., this is mandatory. Stall holders arriving after 8:30am on Market day may find their space has been reassigned.
12. Vendors who have booked in advance must confirm their participation by 8 p.m. of the Thursday before the Market. Leave a message at 216-0521, or advise the Market Manager at the previous Market. No Shows will be charged $5.00, payable at the next market.
13. New Fees for 2011: Annual Membership $35.00 (payable at the time the application form is submitted for the current market year). Standard stall fee $27.00 first space; $22.00 for the second space.
14. Fees payable by 10:00 a.m. on Market Day and will be collected by the Market Manager.
15. The Peninsula Country Market reserves the right to deny space to any vendor not complying with these regulations, and to close any vendor who is found in violation of these regulations during the market.

Appeal Form

Member and/or stall holder request form for an appeal of the rules and/or policies.

If you feel a current rule or policy infringes on the operation of your business, or you have an issue with general market operations, please record your name, business name, phone number, and write the ruling as you understand, with a recommendation as to what changes you feel would enhance the current operation of our Market.

The Manager and the Peninsula Country Market Executive review all submissions. There is no guarantee that your request will be implemented, however the Board respects all the input from its membership to ensure our policies are up to date and relevant for future success.

Our goal is to process appeals within two weeks.
